Student Application Fees 2022-23

There is a fee for every application made to undertake a HOST visit. This fee covers the administration costs of running the programme – it is not a payment for hosts, who are all volunteers.

First you might be wondering - How much will this cost?

This will depend on a few things -

1. If your University is registered with HOST UK
2. If your University will contribute ALL or PART of the application fee for their students.
3. The length of your stay
4. The time of year you wish to visit

Look for your university on the table below. Please check the list carefully, as many university names begin University of.... So remember to check under the letter U as well as under the name of the university town.

When you have found your university, you will want to know - How do I pay?

FREE	you will have nothing to pay
pay £x to HOST	you will be asked to pay this amount by PayPal when you complete your application
pay £x to the ISA	this means you need to pay this amount to your International Student Adviser or Officer after you have submitted your application

There is an additional charge of £24 (£36 for festive visits), but your university may pay all or part of this. You will be told the exact total sum you have to pay before you submit your application. There is no charge for children.

If your university is not on the list, you can still take part in a HOST visit – How?

Weekend Visit	£114 (£36 for an accompanying partner)
Day Visit	£66 (£24 for an accompanying partner)
Festive Day Visit	£84 (£24 for an accompanying partner)
Festive Overnight Visit	£150 (£36 for an accompanying partner)

All fees are applicable to visits undertaken during the period 1st October 2022 and 30th September 2023

Bursaries –

From time to time we are lucky enough to receive funding from external organisations that goes towards the cost of a visit. When this is the case details will be listed below.

Victoria League Scotland

Thanks to a generous grant from Victoria League Scotland, HOST is able to offer bursaries to international students at Scottish Universities who apply for a weekend HOST visit in Scotland.

The first 30 students to apply will have NO application fee to pay.
After that, the next 51 students who apply will be asked to pay a part of the application fee.

How do I apply for the bursary?

Complete the HOST application form online.

When you reach the payment page, you will be told that you need to pay a fee. Do not pay anything. Leave your application at this point. The details you have entered so far will be saved. Make sure you know the application number given to your application.

Then, send an email to linda.hellyer@eiluk.org telling us that you wish to receive this bursary. Give us your name and your HOST application number, and the name of your university.
You must also supply us with proof that you are a registered student at this university. An example of an accepted document is your CAS letter or the acceptance letter from the university offering you a place on the course. If you cannot supply this yourself, we will need to ask your university for this, which is likely to cause a delay.

If you are one of the first 30 students to apply, you will have nothing to pay, and we will complete your application for you. You will receive confirmation of this.

If you are too late for a full-fee bursary, you will be notified about what you have to pay, and you can then return to your application, pay the fee requested and complete the application yourself.
If you don't want to pay the fee, you can of course cancel your application.
